

Documents Say Navy Morale Is Very Low

Secreted Papers List High Brass

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—Documents secretly slipped to newsmen today pictured U. S. Navy morale as shot to pieces and the nation's security imperiled under the present unified defense setup.

The documents, signed with the names of high naval officers, were handed to reporters by a naval source in a shadowy corridor of a downtown office building. He stipulated that his name must not be used and that the papers must not be published until 7 p.m., EST, tonight.

The documents, which consisted of typed copies of letters from the naval officers, included:

1. A statement by Admiral Louis Denfeld, chief of naval operations, that a "navy stripped of its offensive power means a nation stripped of its offensive power."

2. A warning by Vice Admiral Gerald F. Bogan, commander of the first fleet in the Pacific, that navy morale has plummeted "almost to despondency" because of a widespread belief that the country is being "sold a false bill of goods."

3. A statement by Admiral A. W. Radford, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, that a majority of officers in that fleet could be "bribed to death" in the Pentagon defense headquarters.

Navy officials declined any immediate comment on the release of the documents.

The release was the latest incident in a long tug-of-war between the navy and the air force for congressional appropriations and the right to carry out strategic air assignments.

Huge Carrier Cancelled

The navy planned a giant aircraft carrier capable of launching a-bomb planes, but construction was cancelled by Secretary of Defense Johnson. Cedric R. Worth, civilian naval aide now under suspension, prepared a memo hinting that the air force's giant B-36 bomber was a dubious weapon foisted on the taxpayers by political connivance.

Worth later recanted his charges.

Then came Capt. Crommelin, who said he was risking his naval career by charging that the navy's offensive power was being ruined.

In one of the documents released today, Vice Admiral Bogan gave "heartily and complete" endorsement to Crommelin's statements.

Bogan's views were set forth in a letter to Secretary of the Navy Matthews. Enroute to Matthews, the letter was relayed through Admirals Radford and Denfeld, both of whom appended letters expressing their views.

Lands Jet After Power Failure,
40-Mile Glide

San Diego, Calif., Oct. 3—(AP)—A marine colonel landed a powerless jet fighter plane with little more than a flashlight and a prayer last night.

Lt. Col. Marion Carl, former speed record holder, brought the P-9F navy Panther down from 25,000 feet in a 40-mile glide after a power failure.

He used the flash light to watch the air speed indicator, the only instrument he had left. His other hand held the control stick.

When the cockpit windshield started to frost inside he had to drop the flashlight to wipe it off.

"That was the only time I was worried," said Carl. "I needed three hands."

Carl was en route from Portland, Ore., to his home station at Cherry Point, N.C., via San Diego, when the electrical system failed.

That left him without engine, lights, radio or instruments. He couldn't even dump the 220 gallons of fuel left in the tanks. He had no way of notifying air fields of his plight.

AD GAS TRUCK EXPLODES

New York, Oct. 3—(AP)—Gasoline overflowed from a tank-truck delivery vehicle and exploded today, wrecking a five-story garage, rocking Manhattan's west side and injuring 14 persons.

About half the injured were firemen and police who fought the blaze.

MOTHER-IN-LAW
'SWEETEST WOMAN'

Philadelphia, Oct. 3—(AP)—Sponsor of Philadelphia's "Sweetest Woman" contest opened up their list of nominations today. They found one man submitting the name of his mother-in-law.

West To Examine New China Red Government

London, Oct. 3—(AP)—Britain, France and the United States, spurred by Russia's lightning-swift diplomatic endorsement of the new Chinese government, are expected to examine this week their own attitude towards recognition.

Britain took the initiative today by announcing she is prepared to discuss recognition with the 11 other nations of the North Atlantic alliance and the countries of the British Commonwealth—a total of 18 world governments.

On Thursday, when British foreign secretary Bevin returns to the U.S. from Canada, he will review with U.S. Secretary of State Acheson and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman what is to be done in the light of the Soviet step, diplomatic informants said here.

The three foreign ministers will be following a line suggested by the United States last April emphasizing that the west should act as a unit.

in considering any diplomatic approach to the Chinese Reds. Britain and France agreed with the American proposal that they should steer clear of independent recognition.

This sizeable bloc of nations may, through singleness of action, exert pressure on Mao Tze-Tung to carry out many of the international commitments shouldered by the nationalists.

Whatever the western Democracies do, it appears an almost foregone conclusion that the infant Communist Republic will within the next few days or weeks get diplomatic nods from a number of other countries—notably in Eastern Europe.

An exception may be Yugoslavia, which though on the outs with Moscow, has nothing but praise for what it describes as the people's revolution in China. Yugoslav diplomatic sources at Lake Success indicated, however, that Premier Marshal Tito may take his time in deciding whether to recognize the Chinese.

Supreme Court Opens New Term

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 3—(AP)—Edward Korpusinski, 33, of Chicago, was sentenced today to two years in federal prison for a $200,000 mail fraud.

Judge Dave W. Ling of U.S. District Court passed a sentence of two years on each of 10 counts under which Korpusinski was indicted in Illinois. He specified that the terms run concurrently.

Korpusinski had pleaded guilty. The indictments charged that while an employee of the Petroleum Heat and Power Co., of Chicago he used company blanks to order pipe from an East St. Louis, Ill., firm. He then sold it at cut rates to contractors.

The man was arrested at a guest resort here Aug. 31.

New York City To
Make $10,000,000
From Series Fans

New York, Oct. 3—(AP)—The tenth World Series bonanza for New York City today.

The last day, almost unexpected victories of the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers in the frenzied pennant races brought thousands to the big city, jamming hotels and putting a heavy premium on Series tickets.

Hotel and restaurant men said the sports minded throng would spend $10,000,000 here even if the series sounded cheap because the subway fare from Yankee Stadium to Ebbets Field is only a dime. It used to be a nickel.

Offers of $25 and more were made in the black market for single tickets. The ball parks are completely sold out.

The Yankees, the American league champions, are the favorites over the National league Dodgers, 5 to 9, which means that a bettor must put down $9 on the Yankees to win $5.

Relief Cases Rise To Erase Former Savings Of IPAC

Chicago, Oct. 3—(AP)—A continuing increase in relief cases today wiped out savings effected by the Illinois public aid commission in cutting relief allocations 10 per cent.

Henry F. Tenney, IPAC chairman, said the number of persons receiving state relief increased from 73,834 in August, the month before the relief cut, to 78,580 for October.

This was the fourth consecutive monthly increase in relief rolls, and the 16th consecutive monthly increase in aid to dependent children, the commission reported.

Tenney said the commission allocated $2,127,889 for relief in October. $58,765 more than the August allocation before the cut. To deep within its relief budget for the remaining 20 months of the biennium, Tenney said, IPAC can spend $1,732,828 each month.

For aid to dependent children, the allocation was increased $35,854 over the September allowance. The October allocation is $2,518,515, and means, Tenney said, the commission must average $2,291,300 for the ensuing 20 months.

Clark Takes Seat
As Senate Group
Okays Minton

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—A brief formal session today marked the opening of a new Supreme Court term expected to produce historic decisions on racial segregation and Congress' right to inquire into Communism.

It lasted a scant 20 minutes. About the time it was breaking up, the Senate judiciary committee a few hundred feet away, approved by a 9 to 2 vote the selection of Federal Judge Sherman Minton for a place on the court.

Confirmation Expected

Expected Senate confirmation may give the court a full complement of nine members by the time it meets again next Monday. But Justice Douglas is not expected to be present for weeks. He was gravely injured yesterday when he was thrown from a horse in Washington's Cascade mountains.

Today's session was given over principally to Chief Justice Vinson's tribute to the late Justices Frank Murphy and Wiley B. Rutledge. Both died since the court recessed for the summer last June 27.

Justice Tom C. Clark, the court's newest member, took his place for the first time at the extreme end of the bench to Vinson's left. Clark, former attorney general, had been sworn in previously. Vinson took formal note of this.

Ferguson Undecided

Although no substantial opposition was foreseen to Minton's confirmation, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) told newsmen he has not yet decided whether to make a fight on the floor.

Ferguson was one of the judiciary committee members who wanted the Chicago Circuit Court of Appeals judge brought before the group for questioning. Before the committee approved his nomination, it reversed an earlier action and voted 9 to 3 not to call Minton.

Ferguson had wanted to question Minton, a former Senator, about his support of the ill-fated court reorganization plan advanced by the late President Roosevelt in 1937.

In a letter to the committee, Minton recalled that he was then assistant Democratic whip in the Senate and he said, "understandably, I strongly supported those legislative measures recommended by the administration."

Mid-Continent
Asks To Take Over Parks Airline

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—Mid-continent airlines of Kansas City today asked authority to acquire Parks airlines, holder of a choice 4003-mile mid-western air line route.

Mid-continent introduced testimony at a Civil Aeronautics board hearing intended to show that transportation interests in the 11 states involved would be best served by its taking over Parks air line of East St. Louis, Ill.

Parks, awarded the routes several years ago, never started operations. This line, while favoring the Merger plan, said last Thursday that it was now ready to fly the route with single-engine planes.

Parks wants its certifications to be continued if the cab disapproves the Merger plan, under which twin-engine transports could be used on the routes.

Lucas Hits Setting Farm Support Prices Too High

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—Administration leaders in the Senate today cautioned against setting farm price supports so high as to "price the farmer out of the market."

As the Senate opened debate on a compromise farm bill, Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois said: "We have had a farm program for a long time and I want to keep it."

"When the government continues to subsidize a little more and a little more all the time—without sticking to a farm program dealing with basic commodities that can be controlled—you are taking a chance that the whole thing may be struck down."

"Farm income must be maintained at a high level for abundant production," Lucas said, but at the same time farm products must not be priced "out of the market at tremendous cost to the taxpayers."

He spoke up in debate on a long-range farm bill worked out by Senator Anderson (D-Mn.), former secretary of agriculture under President Truman. It provides for a sliding scale of price supports varying with supply. They would range from 75 to 90 per cent of parity for most basic crops.

Parity is a calculated price intended to give farmers a fair return on what they grow in terms of what they have to buy.

The Anderson bill is a compromise between the House-approved bill which would continue the high wartime level of price supports for another year and the Aiken bill passed by the Republican-controlled Congress last year.

The Aiken measure, to go into effect next Jan. 1 unless Congress enacts new farm legislation, would permit a lower sliding scale of price supports.

Vandenberg Has Half Of Left Lung
Removed Monday

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 3—(AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, the Republican foreign affairs leader, had half of his left lung removed in an operation at University hospital here today.

After the six-hour operation, doctors termed his condition "quite good."

The 65-year-old Michigan Senator underwent the operation to remedy a lung condition. He previously was reported to have a lesion on the lung. The chief surgeon, Dr. John Alexander, issued this statement:

"Senator Vandenberg was operated on this morning, one half of his left lung was removed. His condition during the operation was excellent."

The surgeons declined to say what the operation disclosed, but they indicated a further statement would be issued tomorrow, after laboratory tests are made.

Senator Vandenberg entered the hospital a week ago for a checkup. Surgeons began their operation this morning shortly after 8 o'clock.

Escaped Michigan
Lifer Might Be Tried In Kentucky

Mayfield, Ky., Oct. 3—(AP)—A possible trial under Kentucky's armed robbery charge was faced today by Sam Lieb, 42-year-old escaped life-term convict from Michigan.

Lieb was held to the November grand jury under $5,000 bond on the charge and no action was taken in the direction of returning him to Michigan.

The maximum possible sentence upon conviction of armed robbery in Kentucky is death by electrocution.

A decision on whether Lieb will face trial in Kentucky before he is returned to Michigan awaited the return of Commonwealth's attorney, F. B. Martin, from an out-of-town trip.

Lieb was captured Saturday night after an exchange of gunfire with two Mayfield patrolmen who were called to the scene of a $96 holdup by the victim's wife.

Mrs. John L. Smith, Jr., called the police when she overheard her husband outside the house telling two robbers where to find his money.

Lieb stumbled over a fence during the gun battle but his accomplice, identified by Lieb as Henry Shelton, made a clean getaway.

Officer Talks Man
Out Of Shooting,
Then Arrests Him

Moline, Ill., Oct. 3—(AP)—A fast-talking police officer today called a gunman sufficiently to arrest him.

The officer was Detective Sgt. Charles E. Larson. The man arrested was Thomas A. Ryan, 22, who is wanted on forgery charges in Webster City, Ia.

Moline police received a call this morning from Webster City police saying that Ryan was reported at the home of his sister, Mrs. Hugh Lamberson, in Moline.

Larson and two other policemen went to her home. While the other officers waited outside, Larson looked through the house for Ryan.

He found him in the bathroom. Ryan first denied his name, and when Larson asked him for identification, he pulled a gun.

"Don't get silly," Larson said. "If you shoot you'll be in worse trouble than what you're wanted for. Go ahead, but there are a couple of cops outside. You can't get away with it."

Mrs. Lamberson shouted, "Jack, put down the gun. Don't use the gun."

Ryan relented. He said: "I guess I'd better not," and put the revolver back in a holster hanging on the wall. He was taken to the Moline station to await instruction from Webster City. No charge was placed by the Moline police.

100 MPH Hurricane Slams Texas Coast

Galveston, Tex., Oct. 3—(AP)—A hurricane loaded with winds above 100 miles an hour slammed into the rich Texas coast tonight between Freeport and Matagorda and moved inland.

The Galveston weather bureau said the edge of the storm was about to strike here.

Houston braced for hurricane winds before midnight.

Covers Broad Area

The striking storm covered a larger area than had been expected. The base of its target extended 70 miles southwest of here to Matagorda. Earlier, Freeport, about 40 miles away, had been set as the southwestern end of the target.

Houston, about 50 miles inland from here, is the apex of a triangle expected to catch the force of the blow.

The area is packed with dozens of towns, millions of people and millions of dollars worth of industry, shipping and farms.

Winds of 75 to 80 miles an hour whipped Matagorda. The Freeport Coast Guard station reported a seven and a half foot tide.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at New Orleans said the highest winds reported to it were 100-mile-an-hour gusts at Freeport.

At 10 p.m. (CST), the bureau said the center of the storm had reached the Texas coast near Freeport.

120 M.P.H. Winds Recorded

Winds within 25 miles of the center were estimated at more than 100 miles an hour by the Weather Bureau. Earlier, a Navy pilot who flew into the storm said he found winds as high as 120 miles an hour.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at Corpus Christi said it appeared the storm was moving inland near Matagorda from Freeport. Corpus Christi is 130 miles down the coast from Matagorda.

As the hurricane moved in it drove trash cans rattling down Freeport streets. The town is three miles from the beach, and the road leading to the beach already was under water. The Big Dow Chemical plant reported at 10 p.m. that it was in snug shape. Lights in the town flickered.

A small crew was standing by the plant, which sent more than 2,500 men away as it closed today. Many residents of Freeport left town about two hours before the storm began edging in.

South Of Houston

The U.S. Weather Bureau's 10 p.m. (CST) advisory said "the hurricane was located at 10 p.m. (CST) near latitude 28.9, longitude 95.3, or about 60 miles south of Houston, Tex. It is moving northward about 20 miles an hour. The center is now on the coast near Freeport and will reach the Houston area about midnight."

"Strongest winds are above 100 miles per hour within 25 miles of the center. Highest winds reported so far by coastal stations 100 miles per hour in gusts at Freeport."

"Precautions should be continued against dangerous tides and hurricane winds on the upper Texas and extreme West Louisiana coasts and for gales and high tides on remainder of Louisiana coast."

"Heavy rains and high winds are expected for a distance of 200 miles to the north of Freeport-Lake Charles area. Hurricane warnings are displayed north of Corpus Christi, Tex., to Lake Charles, La., and storm warnings on the remainder of the Louisiana coast. Small craft east of the Louisiana coast should remain in port."

Argentina Makes Big Cut In Peso

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Oct. 3—(AP)—Argentina today hitched her peso to the devaluation toboggan with a 46 per cent cut in relation to the dollar. The government, froze prices to prevent an inflationary spiral and put a temporary halt to imports.

Argentina, first South American country to join in the devaluation movement, took a steeper cut than any of the 25 other countries which have taken similar action.

The Central Bank announced that the peso, formerly worth 20 U. S. cents, henceforth would be worth only 11 cents in the "free market."

The banks resumed trading in foreign exchange for the first time since Sept. 19, the day after Britain devalued her pound 301 per cent.

Alton Buildings
Razed In Blaze

Alton, Ill., Oct. 3—(AP)—Fire partially destroyed three two-story brick buildings in downtown Alton Saturday night, jamming traffic on the city's main street.

The buildings were occupied by the Trenchon Feed company. Fire Chief James Lewis issued a general alarm. The blaze burned about five hours before it was brought under control.

Estimates of damage to the contents ranged from $10,000 to $30,000. No estimate of damage to the buildings was made.

About 5,000 persons already in the area—a main shopping district—watched the blaze.

REVENUE FINDS STILL

Dublin, Ga., Oct. 3—(AP)—Revenue agents found something hanging over the Oboogie river today—and it wasn't a bird's nest.

Agent Hollis Harrington said it was the first time he ever saw one in this position.

Rules Group Clears Way For Pension Bill

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—Legislation vastly expanding the government's Social Security program was cleared today for quick House action. Some members hoped it might lessen demands by some labor groups for special pension plans financed wholly by employers.

Speaker Rayburn set debate to begin tomorrow, with a showdown House vote probable on Friday or Saturday.

Over Republican protests of "gag," the House rules committee narrowly cleared the bill for House action under procedures barring all amendments. The vote was reported as 3-1, officially as five Democrats for a "this or nothing" rule, and four Republicans opposing.

The House Ways and Means committee, in approving the bill 22 to 3, warned against "very costly and ill-advised" systems of non-contributory pensions.

1. Increase by 11,000,000 the number of workers covered by old age and survivors insurance, for a new total of 46,000,000;

2. Increase old age benefits by an average of 70 to 80 per cent;

3. Create a new insurance system for persons who become totally and permanently disabled; and

4. Boost the payroll taxes by more than 300 per cent in the next 30 years.

There are now strikes and threats of strikes on labor's demands for special old age pensions totally financed by employers. Under the government Social Security program, the workers and their employers share the cost equally through payroll taxes.

The House Ways and Means committee, in approving the bill 22 to 3, warned against "very costly and ill-advised" systems of non-contributory pensions.

Violence Erupts In Coal Fields

Pittsburgh, Oct. 3—(AP)—Bloody violence erupted anew in the strike-scarred coal fields as the nation's first doubleheader steel-coal walk-out pinched America's economy a little harder.

Gunfire pinpointed a clash between Tennessee's union and non-union miners with at least three hurt and two others missing. This came at the same time as 102,000 of John L. Lewis' men streamed back to the pits, the one bright spot on the strike scene.

With 420,000 United Mine workers and 500,000 CIO United Steelworkers on strike over pensions, the industrial snowball began to roll.

Dock Workers Out

Packard Motor Car company said it will furlough 7,586 workers Thursday and Friday due to "shortages already caused by the steel strike."

Railroads announced plans for laying off additional workers—and started totalling up their millions in losses if the walkouts continue. In the Pikeville, Tenn., gun battle, Matt Bunch, UMW international representative, said 20 unarmed union miners were ambushed as they approached a non-union mine owned by Keener brothers.

Sheriff H. A. Kelly said he found blood splattered around near the mine but that everything was peaceful when he reached the scene. He has made no arrests.

Bunch said his miners were on a "fearful mission."

There were two other incidents during the day:

Pickets Smash Tractor

In Elk county, Pa., eight miles from St. Marys, 21 carloads of pickets swarmed into a small stripping operation owned by Fred Eckert. About 110 pickets tore down a tiny supply shed and smashed a tractor.

At Grundy, Va., 26-year-old Walter Carson Compton was killed when a rock fall buried his coal-filled truck in a mountain pass. State police hinted that death might be connected with the coal shutdown.

The day's good news was for home owners who heat with coal.

Almost all the output of the returning miners—80,000 anthracite workers in eastern Pennsylvania and 22,000 bituminous miners west of the Mississippi—goes for home heat. Lewis ordered them back because their output has no bearing on contract negotiations.

As for any plans for an early end to the strikes that could cripple the nation's industrial life:

They are most conspicuous by their absence.

In Washington, following a White House conference, Conciliation Director Cyrus S. Cing indicated he would take no steps to bring the parties in the steel strike together this week. The government labor officials appeared to have adopted the theory that little good would come from any conference called so soon after the strike began.

REVENUE FINDS STILL HANGING OVER RIVER

Dublin, Ga., Oct. 3—(AP)—Revenue agents found something hanging over the Oboogie river today—and it wasn't a bird's nest.

It was a full-fledged moonshine liquor still, 100-gallon capacity, suspended by a scaffold.

Agent Hollis Harrington said it was the first time he ever saw one in this position.

HOW ABOUT THE U. S. NAVY?

Perhaps you noticed that a family of six from Fall River, Mass., undertook to swim from the Battery to Coney Island through New York Harbor the other day. Three, the father, one son and one daughter, made it.

The family promptly announced that they would try to swim the English Channel next year. Perhaps they were encouraged by the fact that three men made a successful crossing recently in the same day.

Or maybe they've heard that dolphin, who swim in schools, have been doing quite nicely for a long time in their efforts to negotiate the treacherous channel waters. Anyway, this team attempt ought to be interesting. A veritable armada of rowboats and pilot vessels probably will be needed, to judge from the number of craft that follow single swimmers.

Lynette Luttrell Bride
Of William D. NealChristian Church
Scene Of Pretty
Service Sunday

One of the loveliest weddings of the early fall season was that Sunday afternoon of Miss Lynette Luttrell and William D. Neal, which took place at 2:30 o'clock in Central Christian church.

The bride is the daughter of the late Guy Luttrell and for the past several years has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Edge, 325 Rosedale boulevard. Mr. Neal's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dee K. Neal of Roodhouse.

The couple pledged their vows in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Leslie G. Heuston at an altar banked with palms and ferns, accented by two large baskets of white mums and an arrangement of glowing tapers.

A prelude of organ selections, including Debussy's "Clair de Lune" and Cadman's "Liebeslied," was presented by Mrs. Charles Geisler, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

"Because" and "Your's Is My Heart Alone" were sung by Mrs. John Zell, with Mrs. Geisler as accompanist.

Sister As Honor Attendant

The bride's twin sister, Miss Jeanette Luttrell, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Delores Lynn Harp of Roodhouse and Barbara Neal, sister of the bridegroom.

Acting as best man was Robert Neal, brother of the bridegroom. Merle Harp of Roodhouse and Robert Naffinger of Delavan served as ushers and groomsmen. The candles were lighted by Jack Rimbey of Roodhouse, also an usher.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by Mr. Edge, was attired in a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a shadow-sheer yoke, lace Bertha, bridal point sleeves and fitted basque. Side panels of lace adorned the full gathered skirt which swept in a wide train.

Her veil was of illusion tulle, held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations.

Identical Gowns

Identical in design, the gowns of the attendants were of satin, styled with a fitted bodice, square neckline with cowl drape and gathered skirt, complemented with deep cuffed pockets. Each wore a matching ruffled half hat and mitts and carried a cascade bouquet of carnations.

The honor attendant wore gold with a green bouquet, while Mrs. Harp was gown in aqua, carrying a pink bouquet, and Miss Neal, in mauve with yellow.

Mrs. Edge chose an afternoon dress of green crepe, with which she wore brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. A dress of teal blue, with black accessories and a corsage of tallman roses was worn by the bridegroom's mother.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. The lace-covered serving table held a bouquet of flowers and a four-tiered wedding cake.

Serving was done by Mrs. Theodore Fordwood, Mrs. Harold Luttrell, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Joseph Whitehead, Mrs. Darrell Fry, Mrs. Paul Knox, Mrs. Donna Knox, Mrs. Scott

McDonald, Miss Joann Benson, Miss Wanda Dobbs and Mrs. Ruth Hoover.

Leave After Reception

As the couple departed for a wedding trip through the Great Smoky mountains, the bride was wearing a suit of chocolate brown with matching accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Neal is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and a member of Zeta Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority. She has been employed at the A and P.

Her husband, a graduate of Roodhouse High school, attended Northwestern university and Illinois college and received a B. S. degree in civil engineering from Bradley university. During the war he was with the Naval Seabees, serving three years in the U. S. and South Pacific. He is now employed as a civil engineer with the J. L. Simmon Co., Inc., general contractors, Indianapolis.

The couple will reside at 1025 Helen Drive, Indianapolis.

He is wearing the summer white working uniform of a Coast Guard cadet.

Cadet Olson graduated from Jacksonville High school and participated in the February 1949 examination for appointment to the Academy.

Two Missouri Women
Killed In Collision;
Third Dies Yesterday

The death toll of an automobile and truck collision south of Waverly on State Route 111 rose to three Monday morning with the death of Mrs. Jeanette LaJeunesse, 42 years old, at Passavant hospital. Her home was at 6139 Sixty-seventh street, St. Louis.

Mrs. LaJeunesse died of head injuries which involved one of her eyes.

Two other St. Louis residents were killed almost instantly and several injured at 9:35 o'clock Sunday morning in a wreck three and one-half miles south of Waverly.

Mrs. Carmelia LaJeunesse, 19, an expectant mother, residing at 2718 Prairie street, St. Louis, and Mrs. Marion Edwards, 21, 6211 Bailey place, Hillsdale, Mo., met death as the car in which they were riding is reported to have skidded against a truck.

Symarius LaJeunesse, husband of one of the dead women, was injured and is also a patient at Passavant. His condition was described Monday as improving, and not serious. He is nephew of Mrs. Jeanette LaJeunesse.

Robert Edwards, 21, whose wife died in the crash, was slightly hurt out was discharged from the hospital after emergency treatment.

Crash During Hard Rain

State police and county officers reported that the fatal crash occurred during a rainstorm which swept the southeast section of the county. A northbound automobile driven by Symarius LaJeunesse is said to have slipped off the pavement, and as the driver attempted to right its course the car swung into the path of a southbound truck driven by Arthur Stratton, 19 year old Palmyra youth.

Stratton told officers that the St. Louis car apparently went off the concrete onto the shoulder of the highway, and as the truck approached careened back on the pavement, throwing the rear of the sedan into the front of the truck. The Chevrolet automobile was almost demolished and was towed to a Waverly garage.

Stratton was following another truck owned and driven by Kenneth Grimmert of Palmyra, by whom he is employed, according to state police.

Women In Rear Seat

The three Missouri Women were riding in the rear seat of the sedan. The party was enroute to Springfield where they expected to visit George McCutcheon and family, 1712 Loveland avenue. George and Stuart McCutcheon of Springfield are brothers of Mrs. Jeanette LaJeunesse.

The remains of the two women killed instantly, were removed to the Neece Funeral Home at Waverly. The ambulance brought the injured to the hospital.

Was Expectant Mother

Members of the family said Mrs. Carmelia LaJeunesse would have become a mother in February.

Deputy Coroner Roy Covington interviewed several witnesses Sunday in preparation for holding an inquest.

The deputy coroner said Monday that he will hold an inquest Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Neece Funeral Home in Waverly, into the deaths of the two women who were killed Sunday. An inquest into Mrs. Jeanette LaJeunesse' death will be held Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Gillham Funeral Home in this city.

Burglar Climbs
Ladder To Enter
Veterans' Home

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Home on East Motion Road was burglarized by a second-story man early Sunday evening during the absence of the caretaker. A ladder was raised to a second-story window through which the burglar entered the building.

On the second floor the prowler "jimmied" two doors of rooms in which stores are kept, but none of the stores were taken.

Going to the first floor, the prowler broke open a juke box and appropriated several dollars in change. The music box was badly damaged. About $150 was stolen from the cash register.

The burglary occurred between 6:30 o'clock when the last member left the building, and 9 p.m. when the custodian returned.

The sheriff's office was notified of the burglary, and Deputy Jack Andrew went to the V.F.W. home to begin an investigation.

Ways to Save

If you were a Nigerian your "savings" would consist of excess grain which you had accumulated over a period of years and which you would store in a giant mud "igloo." Some years your savings would be so small that you could almost count the number of kernels added to your store...but you would save them, nevertheless. It is amazing how fast a small amount, saved regularly, adds up when saved at Jacksonville Savings & Loan Association. All the time you are saving more, your money is earning more for you. That's why it's fun to save at Jacksonville Savings & Loan Association. Stop in and let us explain.

Problem Of Housing Grade School Pupils Will Be Considered

The problem of housing the present and future elementary school enrollment will be presented at a public meeting at the high school on Tuesday evening, October 4, at 7:30 o'clock.

The increase in population and the accelerated birthrate have caused schools to be crowded throughout the county. In Jacksonville two of the elementary schools, Jefferson and Lafayette, are over-crowded now and the others are approaching their capacity.

The increases which have taken place are illustrated by the enrollment by grades which is as follows: first, 222; second, 186; third, 186; fourth, 179; fifth, 179; sixth, 160; seventh, 156 eighth, 151.

The largest increase is still to come as is shown by a 60 per cent increase in the birthrate. The number of births in Jacksonville was 199 in 1942 and 215 in 1943. These two groups of children are now in the first and second grades. By 1946 the number of births increased to 253 and to 322 in 1947. There has been only a slight decline in the birthrate during 1948 and 1949. The increase in births may increase the total elementary school enrollment of 1138 by 50 per cent.

The addition of a school year kindergarten program is also a factor in school housing. Since the schools are crowded, only a short kindergarten session has been provided during the summer. The benefits of kindergartens in the educational program justify their establishment on a regular school year basis.

School patrons and other interested persons are cordially invited to be present at the meeting.

Coincident with the beauty of line achieved in the 1950 Nash Airflyte cars are the advantages of the scientifically conceived aerodynamic design which contributes importantly to the unusually high fuel economy of Nash cars. Nash engineers claim that recent wind tunnel tests at the University of Wichita revealed that 1950 Nash cars have the lowest air resistance of any full size stock cars tested. Passenger comfort as well as economy, is increased by reduced rear-end air turbulence.

Officials Check-Up On Irish With Movies Before Washington Tilt

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 3.—(P)—Dispute over the game officials had a pre-game movie brush-up on Notre Dame tactics today re-kindled Irish resentment against officiating of their 27-7, penalty-punctuated triumph over Washington's Huskies at Seattle Saturday.

W. H. Frazer, head of the Washington Athletic Club, revealed at Spokane that movies of last year's Irish-Washington game at South Bend had been viewed by the four officials "not too long" before Saturday's game.

Irish Coach Frank Leahy came home from the tilt fighting mad at the whistle blowers.

Franzer said Washington Coach Howie O'Dell was at the showing and "the purpose was to point out what they (Washington) thought about holding by Notre Dame players."

The point at issue, the officials said, was not whether Notre Dame players grasped their opponents, but whether their blocking methods constituted holding. Frazer didn't like it. Concerning the movie-viewing, Frazer said "I personally don't think it was a good idea and I have written a letter to Victor O. Schmidt, Pacific Coast conference commissioner."

At Los Angeles, Schmidt said: "I haven't received any letter from Frazer, and until I do, I'm not in a position to continue or start a controversy in the matter."

From Seattle came this explanation by Harvey Cassill, University of Washington athletic director: "Officials who worked the Washington-Notre Dame game" were shown movies of last year's game between the two schools. It is customary for officials to check with coaches to determine any particular phase or aspect of a game about to be played.

These instructions include not only comments on their own type of play, but likewise point up any attitude they have acquired from previous games or experience toward their opponent's type of play. It is not infrequent that diagrams are used to illustrate the particular types of play. In this instance, movies were used for further clarification."

Leahy Has His Say

And this was Irish Coach Leahy's reaction: "I believe the entire procedure tended to send the officials into Saturday's game with a supercilious attitude. It was quite irregular. I don't know of this ever being done before."

"It would have to be that which caused the fouls to be called against us in that manner."

"If it (the movie showing) was intended to be an instructional clinic, a representative of Notre Dame should have been invited."

Leahy, just after the game in which Notre Dame was penalized 135 yards on 10 major infractions, commented bitterly that the Irish had to play "four extra men." Besides Frazer, the officials were referee Thomas D. Wilson, Umpire William Corbus and Field Judge Elwood Starbuck.

Washington was penalized four times for 20 yards, including two five-yard losses for offside and two five-yard setbacks for delay before scrimmage.

Leahy said his blast at the officials did not indicate the Irish would no longer schedule Washington. "I have only said that those officials will not officiate another Notre Dame game," Leahy declared. "I have not said that we will not play Washington again."

Saturday's game ended a two-year, home-and-home series between Washington and Notre Dame.

Dodgers' Robinson National League Batting Champion

New York, Oct. 3.—(P)—Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers is the 1949 batting champion of the National League with an average of .342.

The swift infielder lashed out 203 hits in 593 trips to the plate and slugged Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals, 1948 leader, into second place.

Musial, who led last year with 378, sank to .339 this term and barely beat out teammate Enos (Country) Slaughter, who had .336. Not only did Robinson win the batting title but he predominated in all offensive phases.

JACKIE ROBINSON

He led the National League base stealers with 37 thefts. He was the runner up in number of hits and runs batted in, and shared second place in hitting doubles and triples.

Musial Pace Setter

Musial was the pace setter in hits, with 207; doubles with 41 and triples with 13. Robinson's 203 hits was second best, and he tied Del Ennis of Philadelphia, for tied in doubles with 38. Slaughter and Robinson each batted out 12 triples. The negro second baseman drove in 124 runs to trail Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh, by four.

The league honors went to Kiner, who belted 54 and who threatened the circuit's record held by the late Hack Wilson at 56.

Two pitchers with the pennant-winning Dodgers had the best won-loss record and a third Brooklyn flinger was second in strike outs.

Roe, 15 To 5

Preacher Roe had the best won-loss record with 15 triumphs and only five setbacks. Ralph Branca was next with 13-5. Don Newcombe, who didn't join the newly crowned champion till May, whiffed 148 batters, four less than did Warren Spahn of the Boston Braves.

Following Slaughter in the batting race are Carl Furillo of Brooklyn, .322; Kiner .310; Bobby Thomson, New York, .309; Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati, .308; Willard Marshall, New York, .307; and Ennis and Harry Walker, Cincinnati, each with .301.

Blueboy Forward Wall Hard Hit By Injuries; Prep For North Central

The Illinois College football squad limped home from Principia Saturday night nursing more wounds than should be borne by a winning ball club. The easy 27-6 victory the Millermen racked up against the Principians belies the physical condition in which several Hilltopper regulars found themselves after Saturday's struggle.

At a Monday afternoon muster, Blueboy Coach Al Miller checked three regular linemen off the list of starters for the North Central fray here Saturday afternoon. Besides Captain and End Don Longer and Guard Bill Mathews—licking knee and shoulder separations—Bob Brand, regular tackle, was pronounced unfit for duty by club physician Dr. Bone. The chubby tackle suffered recurrence of a war-time injury which left the entire left side of his face paralyzed.

Sam Spink Is Back

A single ray of sunshine pierces the gloom shrouding the Hilltop camp. Sam Spink, 230 pound tackle who has been inactive all season with a knee hurt, will be back at his old post. He and brother Jim have bulked the collegians' forward wall for three years. His return will replace the injured Brand but leave line-coach Brooks woefully weak on reserves.

Fullback Bill Gross and the speedy John DeLaPaz are limping with leg wounds, but should be ready to go against the North Central huskies. DeLaPaz has a bad ankle—that presents a problem from one game to the next. Gross, who would be hard to replace at fullback, has taken too many cleats in the shins and will have to rest this week in order to be ready Saturday.

The North Central tussle will mark the second conference grid appearance for the Hilltoppers. They tied Millikin 6-6 in their CCI inaugural, North Central whipped Iowa Central last weekend in its football opener.

We realize the annual task that local athletic directors grapple with when booking time rolls around, but had only one had the insight or foresight to chart a game for the "dry" weekends in town, his school would have cleaned up at the gate. Action-hungry football fans, unable to find a ball game in town last week, assaulted the Journal-Courier switchboard with "Where can we see a good football game?"

The tough part about such a problem is that no local school officials can do anything about it. Jacksonville high, Routt and Illinois College teams are all members of conferences whose schedules are drawn up years ahead of time. So Jacksonville with four football teams in town, must drive 30 or 40 miles to see a ball game.

And, this weekend in order to follow his favorites, Joe Fan will have to make his pilgrimage to the Northside field on three successive days. From nothing to plenty rolls the football season in Jacksonville.

From cold to hot will be the order of weather this coming football weekend. Uniform of the day (night) when Routt and Mercedia tangle Thursday p.m. will be bearskin coats and coonskin caps. It won't be changed for the Beardstown-JHS struggle Friday night unless mittens, mufflers and muffs are added. Saturday should emerge bright and sunny for the Illinois College-North Central fracas which gets underway at 2:30 p.m.

However, don't let the brittle weather scare you away. We're banking on our prep champions to make things plenty hot for the invading high schoolers.

In solemn dignity we bid adieu to our St. Louis Cardinals. They, and the Boston Red Sox, put up a whale of a battle for top spot on the totem pole but now their only claim to notoriety lies in the fact that they have countless world series tickets to buy back. Fans, eager to get the ducats a few days ago, are now as eager to get rid of them. Anybody want to purchase some St. Louis world series tickets, cheap? They make good book markers.

This department, for one, will be happy to wind up the baseball season. With the pros putting on a battle-royal and our local athletes vying for space we've had quite a choice giving everything choice billing. It seemed that every story we edited was worthy of glaring headline. That's fine for the top of the page, but those little corners that must also be filled suffered accordingly. There is a solution, but we don't know how a ticker-tape newspaper—three inches high and 30 feet wide—would sell.

Prep Halfbacks Set Hot Pace In Illinois

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 3.—(P)—Halfbacks Bruce Nelson of West Chicago and Tom Dray of Cullom turned in the top individual scoring feats during weekend games on downstate high school gridirons.

Nelson, a 155 pound deceptive runner with great speed, exploded for six touchdowns as West Chicago downed Sycamore 38-12. In three tilts, all on the win side, Nelson has counted 63 tallies.

Dray also bagged six touchdowns in sparking Cullom's 52-19 conquest of Chatsworth.

Ron Little, 165 pound Springfield Lanphier halfback, gave an impressive performance in pacing his team to victory No. 3. Little went across the Springfield Feitshans goal line four times—twice on intercepted passes—as Lanphier won 33-19.

Individual feats on gridirons elsewhere:

Fullback Don Oelschlager had a big night for Dwight, whose Trojans blanked Wilmington 35-0. He chalked up three six-pointers, tossed a pass for another touchdown and booted five conversions.

Danville Outclashes Urbana

Danville outclashed Urbana in the scoring department, 40 to 12, but oddly enough the losers showed an edge in first downs of nine to three. Halfback Dick Blair raced across for three Danville touchdowns.

Fullback Keith Branson of Mattoon dazzled the Decatur defense with a running attack that netted him an average of nearly eight yards in 24 tries. A 60 yard punt by Gene Coombs checked a serious scoring threat by Decatur early in the game and Mattoon went on to win 18-0.

Mt. Vernon's Rams rang up 14 first downs to four for Harrisburg but lost 7-6. Basketball star Max Hooper scored for Mt. Vernon at the end of a 60 yard drive but Harrisburg bounced back later with a scoring aerial. Roy Ziegler kicked the all important point.

Moline's Maroons, rated as a giant in the northwest area, ground out 383 yards by rushing against Kewanee with Halfback Bill Jensen averaging nine yards on his six ball carrying assignments. Kewanee was Moline's straight victim, 32-6.

Galesburg Whips Chicago

In the same area, Galesburg registered one of the week's most one-sided triumphs by trouncing Marshall of Chicago 33-0. Fullback Fred Rippel made three of Galesburg's eight touchdowns. Galesburg's only loss this season was a 14-0 match with Moline in the opening game.

Halfback Dick Echard had a hand in all Peoria Manual scoring as the Rams started their Big 12 title drive by defeating Lincoln 14-0. Echard streaked 48 yards for the first tally, passed 40 yards for the second and kicked both extra points.

Dean Guzman, fleet runner on West Aurora's strong outfit, put together touchdown sprints of 55 and 40 yards in snail-like Niles 27-7.

Kell Unofficial Batting Victor Over Ted Williams

Chicago, Oct. 3.—(P)—George Kell, the new unofficial American League batting champion, knows how to hit the ball. But more important—he knows when to hit it.

After breathing on the neck of Ted Williams in the American League standings during the tight pennant drive, the Detroit Tigers' third baseman uncorked two hits against Cleveland yesterday and won the crown.

GEORGE KELL

Williams, four-time winner, went hitless against the Yankees on the last day of the season. But the difference was close—to a fraction of a point. Kell's average was .3429 and Williams' was .3427.

First Championship

It is Kell's first batting championship. Also it is the first time an American League third baseman ever has won baseball's most envied laurel.

The 27-year-old Swifton, Ark., slugger was benched by a fractured thumb during the final stages of the league race, but finished strong.

Other standings, according to unofficial final statistics: Bob Dillinger, St. Louis, .323; Dale Mitchell, Cleveland, .317; Bobby Doerr, Boston, .309; Cass Michaels, Chicago, .308; Dom DiMaggio, Boston, .307; Johnny Pesky, Boston, and Roy Sievers, St. Louis, .306 each; Vic Wright, Detroit, .304.

No Yankee batters ranked among the top 10 for the first time in many years.

Williams and Mitchell shared honors in the specialized departments. Big Ted held the leadership in most runs with 150, most doubles, 39, and most home runs, 43. He failed to connect with a single homer last week, however.

10 Hits A Week

Mitchell blasted 10 hits last week giving him the most hits for the year—a total of 203. Though he didn't register any triples last week, his record 23 was enough to win him the title in that department.

Tied at 159 for the most runs batted in were Boston teammates Vernon Stephens and Williams.

Dillinger finished first in stolen bases with 20, far behind Jackie Robinson's pace-setting bag of 34 in the National League.

Boston's Ellis Kinder was the league's best percentage pitcher with a 23-6 record for 193, but the winningest hurler was his Red Sox buddy, Mel Parnell, with 25 victories and seven losses. Parnell pitched the most complete games, 27, and Virgil Trucks of Detroit became the 1949 strike-out king with 153.

Pennant Winners Rest After Closest Fight In Baseball History

By Gayle Talbot

New York, Oct. 3.—(P)—Two spent but triumphant baseball teams caught their collective breaths today after perhaps the most exhaustive finish in the history of the major leagues, and braced themselves for a homecoming starting Wednesday in the House that Ruth Built.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, still panting from the extra-inning thriller over the tough Philadelphia Phillies which enabled them to hit the tape a length ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals on the final day of the season, simply relaxed and mentally computed the size of their world series checks.

Casey Stengel's almost fabulous Yankees, who rose to dramatic heights in smashing back the final challenge of the Boston Red Sox in two stirring games at the stadium, only suited up long enough to pose for the customary portrait as American league champions and indulge in a light practice.

Tomorrow the Brooks plan to visit their rival's huge arena and line their sights on its right and left field barriers in a lengthy batting drill.

The National league champs recall with lingering avidity that they were granted no workout in the stadium before the '47 subway series, which they lost to the Yanks in a tangle seven-game set.

There was no rush to buy tickets to the playoff for the good reason that every box and reserved chair both at the stadium and Ebbets field—when the series will transfer for three games starting Friday—were bought and paid for during the final delicious stages of the pennant races.

Only a few sturdy and determined fans approached the stadium box office during the day to purchase standing room tickets at $4 per copy. In all, close to 30,000 standing room and bleacher seats will be available for games at the stadium, a Yankee official said.

Only today did local fans begin debating the momentous question of who will win the series.

There is no doubt that the Yankees will be favorites; it's all a matter of degree. Possibly Stengel's gritty athletes will be a solid 2 to 1 choice by the time they square off at 2 p.m. (CST) on Wednesday, especially if Joe DiMaggio shows no ill effects from his exertions over the week end and derives real benefit from the two-day rest.

DiMaggio Jerks Himself

The great jolter, heart and soul of the Yanks, took himself out of the line-up in the last inning of yesterday's victory, over the Red Sox because he was too weak to run as he thought he should. He has been up less than a week from a protracted bout with a virus infection. But, with or without DiMaggio near his best, the American leaguers will be favored on past record alone. They lost only one game in whipping the Dodgers in the '41 series, the memorable set in which Catcher Mickey Owen dropped a third strike on Tommy Henrich for the final out of a game and the Yanks came on to win.

None who witnessed the '47 brawl between the same clubs will ever forget the ninth inning, two-out double by Cookie Lavagetto which deprived Bill Bevens of a no-hitter and salvaged a game which the Brooks had given up for lost. Nor the sensational catch made by stubby little Al Giofriddo off DiMaggio to save a later game in the stadium.

Pee Wee Reese, the only member of the present Dodgers who will have played in all three interborough series, complained today: "doesn't any team except the Yankees ever get in the world series from the American league?"

Roe Vs. Lopat In Opener

Wednesday's opener shapes up a duel between two crafty left-handers of the older school—Elwin (Preacher) Roe for the Dodgers and Ed Lopat for the Yankees. Both are 15-game winners, and both specialize in the sneaky, control pitching which baffles a batter rather than blows him down.

It was considered a possibility that Manager Burt Shotton would pass over Roe in favor of his big negro rookie Don Newcombe, who racked up 17 wins after reporting to the Dodgers in May. But Newcombe was shelved out by the Phils in yesterday's game at Shibe park when he failed to keep his hard one low enough, and, besides, it behooves Shotton to employ the veteran Roe at the outset if he expects to get two games out of him. Preach requires a good rest between starts.

Looming before the Dodgers from the start will be the shadow of their old nemesis, Joe Page, the great relief pitcher who spelled their doom in the '47 play-offs and who carried the Yank mound staff on his broad shoulders through much of the campaign just closed.

Page has to be accounted the "difference" between the rival corps. The Yankee staff is not a really fine one by most standards, but it gains stature by the fact that whenever Lopat, Allie Reynolds or Tommy Byrne falters he will be succeeded by the greatest reliever in the game today.

The Dodgers lack such a fireman since their old standby, Hugh Casey, left them last year. He joined the Yanks recently but isn't eligible for the series.

There's little else to choose between the two clubs, except that the Yankees, with DiMaggio, Tommy Henrich and Yogi Berra swinging from the hips, boast greater potential power. The Dodgers wound up with a team batting average of .270, the Yankees .269.

No distinction may be made between the fighting qualities exhibited by the two teams in their nerve tingling struggles at the wire, the Yankees 269.

Cards Begin Ticket Returns

St. Louis, Oct. 3.—(P)—The St. Louis Cardinal organization began the unhappy task of returning about $1,500,000 to baseball fans who ordered world series tickets in belief the Cards would win the pennant.

About 115,000 ticket orders had been received. The ducats were about ready for mailing when the club hit the skids after leading the National League more than a month.

The Cards returned home late last night from Chicago where they lost the pennant dropping two of three games to the Cubs.

Proposed Ordinance Limits Sale Of Milk To Grade A Products

Copies of a specimen grade A pasteurized milk ordinance prepared by Dr. F. A. McCord of the Morgan County Health department were distributed to members of the city council for study at last night's meeting. Alderman Brune of the health committee announced that the health department desires that the council study the proposed regulations, with a view to future action.

Provisions set forth in the proposed ordinance follow those of a state pasteurized milk law approved in 1938, regulating the handling, processing, labeling, sale and distribution of milk and milk products. Only grade A pasteurized milk would be sold for consumption in the city if an ordinance were adopted. Permits for the sale of milk if such an ordinance were adopted. Permits for the sale of milk would be required, and licenses would be issued. Several paragraphs of the proposed measure deal with inspection of milk and dairies by health sanitary officers.

Penalties of not less than $10 nor more than $200 for each violation are contained in the specimen ordinance.

The councilmen took their copies home from the meeting. There was no discussion of the subject, but it probably will be introduced again after the aldermen have acquainted themselves with the health department's recommendations.

Public Library 60 Years Old

The 60th anniversary of the Jacksonville Public Library, which was established by an ordinance passed by the council on Oct. 3, 1889, was recognized by the council after City Clerk Phillips read a communication from the library board, addressed to Mayor Hoagland.

The anniversary was called to attention by Leo J. Flood, president, and W. D. Doying, secretary of the board, in a letter to the mayor. Prior to the establishment of a free library, a small city library was operated by funds contributed by private sources. The present Carnegie building was opened in 1903.

At present the public library has a collection of 40,000 volumes, with 130 periodicals, six daily newspapers, and a large reference collection. Completion of repairs on the city hall roof were reported by Alderman Reid.

Freitag was arrested Sunday afternoon following a collision in which a truck and two automobiles were damaged in a smashup at the intersection of East State and Brown streets, with each driver escaping injury.

A 1949 Dodge pickup truck driven by Bernard Shanahan, 219 Brown street, and a 1934 Ford driven by Ed Freitag, 303 West College avenue, collided first at the intersection, after which Freitag's car is reported to have backed into a car owned by George Medlock, 476 South East street, which was parked at the curb.

All three vehicles were considerably damaged. The truck was driven away under its own power, but the Freitag and Medlock cars were towed to the Brummett garage.

Officers Spreen, Willner and Runkel went to the scene of the wreck. Freitag was taken to the police station and booked for investigation.

Bishop Says U.S. Must Eliminate Discrimination

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—(AP)—If America would win leadership in a world two-thirds peopled by colored races, she must quickly accord full equality to negroes, Bishop William Scariett of St. Louis has declared.

Bishop Scariett, here to attend the Episcopal church convention, said the American people ultimately would be doomed unless they rid themselves of "any lingering contempt" for negroes.

He spoke informally at Trinity Episcopal church yesterday. He said in part:

"We are now living in a world where, as Arnold Toynbee has said, problems which once were simply disgraceful have now become lethal, deadly."

"To give an example: we people of the United States now find ourselves in competition for world leadership with another great power, which, whatever else it has done that is bad, and there is much of that—at least apparently has got rid of discrimination based solely on the color of a man's skin."

Episcopal Church Asks Quick U. S., Russ Agreement

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church today called upon the U.S. government to "make ceaseless efforts" to bring about reconciliation with the Soviet Union.

The group adopted and sent to the House of deputies a resolution to that effect. It acknowledged vast difficulties in the path of such accord, but warned that war would be "a catastrophe of limitless proportions to the whole world."

"We believe there is no reason why nations with different ideologies cannot live together in the same world," the resolution stated, "provided they do not try to force their own systems upon other peoples."

Both Houses urged setting up a world government with power to keep the peace.

The world government resolution called for strengthening the United Nations. It went even further in seeking "an international order limiting national sovereignty and world law binding on both nations and individuals for the maintenance of just and enduring peace."

Cloves were such an expensive luxury to western civilization at one time that the ships of explorer Ferdinand Magellan sold a cargo of them for more than the cost of a three-year expedition.

Forced Into Own Car, Hit On Head, Robbed

Two Morgan county men were in the county jail last night, charged with auto theft following their arrest Monday on complaints signed by Tony Cremons, 42 year old Jacksonville man, that he had been overpowered by them near the Silver Star Inn on U.S. Route 36 east of the city. Cremons told police that he had been beaten and robbed of approximately $35 before he was "taken for a ride," and pushed out of his car near Jacksonville.

Cremons' car was found abandoned and damaged on the old state road near Salem church, northeast of the city.

Within a few hours after the victim appeared at the police station, a suspect giving his name as Raymond Marver, residing on South Church street, was picked up by Capt. Ike Flynn and Deputy Arthur Roach.

Later in the morning Harold Angelo of near Lynnville was arrested by Deputy John Irlam for questioning in the case.

Police and members of the sheriff's force worked together on the case for a number of hours after hearing Cremons' account of how he was assaulted and robbed.

Overpowered By Pair
Cremons told police he left the Silver Star tavern around closing time and went to his car, where he was overpowered by two men. He said they forced him into the rear seat, and drove away. A short time later he was struck on the head with something he believes to have been a shoe, and robbed of his money.

The victim said that the holdup men pushed him from the car somewhere in the edge of Jacksonville, after which he made his way to the police station.

The automobile steering gear was damaged when it was found on the old state road. The car was towed to the Brummett garage.
